ELIZABETH MURRAY - Thursday, January 26, 2012

Author, Photographer, Painter and Keynote Speaker—Elizabeth is a voice that inspires and ignites a commitment to beauty, nature, spirit and sustainability. Elizabeth's passion for nature and appreciation of beauty inspired her dedication to diverse projects around the world—from Monet's Garden's in Giverny, France to remote African villages and the Amazon rain forest. Perhaps best-known for her work helping to restore Monet's gardens and photographing them for 25 years, Elizabeth's photos have traveled with Monet's paintings to eight museums and are published annually in calendars. Her all new 20th anniversary edition of Monet's Passion: Ideas, Inspiration and Insights from the Painter's Gardens is now available.

AMY STEWART- Thursday, February 23, 2012

As an award-winning author of five books on the perils and pleasures of the natural world, including three New York Times bestsellers, Wicked Bugs, Wicked Plants and Flower Confidential, Stewart is a sought-after public speaker. Her spirited lectures and appearances at hundreds of radio and television programs have inspired and entertained audiences nationally. She has written for the New York Times, the San Francisco Chronicle, and every national garden magazine, including Fine Gardening, where she is a contributing editor. She is the recipient of a National Endowment for the Arts fellowship, the American Horticulture Society's Book Award, and a California Horticultural Society Writer's Award.

CLARE COOPER MARCUS— Thursday, March 22, 2012

Professor Emeritus in the Departments of Architecture and Landscape Architecture at the University of California, Berkeley and a partner in the firm Healing Landscapes, a consulting firm specializing in user-needs analysis related to the programming, design and evaluation of outdoor spaces in health care settings. She is internationally recognized for her pioneering research on the psychological and sociological aspects of architecture, land-use planning and landscape design – particularly in urban open space. As an author, her books include: Healing Gardens: Therapeutic Benefits and Design Recommendations, House As a Mirror of Self: Exploring the Deeper Meaning of Home and Iona Dreaming: The Healing Power of Place. She will present Healing Gardens: How the design of green space in healthcare is restorative to the human spirit.
