

The POSTCARDS FROM...series

The PostCards From...plein-air watercolor workshop series has expanded!

NEW!! The Plein-Air Watercolor Primer*

Dry Creek Art Press, 2377 S. Downing St., Denver CO

Saturday, March 22 and Sunday, March 23, 2014 9am – 3:30pm

Instructors: Marjorie Leggitt and Leon Loughridge

Price: $360.00 (includes custom traveling watercolor kit and gourmet lunches)

The workshop: In this 2-day "watercolor boot camp", students explore watercolor basics and techniques used or painting outdoors. Skills include: working with a limited outdoor palette, building color washes and color "builds", developing essential core abstractions, using values and temperatures to create space-filled compositions, and much more.

*This is a pre-requisite for POSTCARDS FROM...ASPEN. Students taking both workshops have registration priority.

NEW!! POSTCARDS FROM....Aspen, Colorado*

The Aspen Meadows Resort, 845 Meadows Road, Aspen, CO

Wednesday, September 10 – Sunday, September 14, 2014***

9am – 4:00pm Thursday - Sunday

Instructors: Marjorie Leggitt and Leon Loughridge

Price: $1360.00 ($395.00 single room supplement)

Includes: 4 nights lodging, instruction, workshop booklet, watercolor sketch books, gourmet breakfasts and lunches, 24-hour health club, outdoor pool and hot tub, tennis court access and equipment, complimentary bicycle rental, full business center access, 24-hour shuttle service to and from downtown Aspen and the Aspen Airport.

The workshop: This NEW 4-day plein air watercolor workshop is a perfect follow-up to the Plein-Air Watercolor Primer workshop and previous Leggitt/Loughridge Postcards From...workshops. Starting at a more advanced level, students delve into challenging aspects of CVCT. From value and temperature sketches to capturing light throughout the day, students learn how to use "schematics" for problem-solving, to improve time management, and to develop larger and more complex watercolors. Each day presents enticing landscape exercises, composition opportunities, personal instruction and guidance.

The location: Nestled on 40 gorgeous sweeping acres and surrounded by the picturesque Rocky Mountains, the Aspen Meadows Resort is home to the Aspen Institute. The resort, designed by Herbert Bayer in the Bauhaus style, boasts a classic and creative history dating back to 1949. Each spacious room with floor-to-ceiling windows brings the inspiring, mountainous surroundings inside while the contemporary and simple furnishings decorate the rooms.

*A pre-requisite for this workshop is the Plein-Air Watercolor Primer or one of the Leggitt/Loughridge POSTCARDS FROM workshops. Price includes pre-workshop lodging on Wednesday, September 10; the workshop begins on Thursday, September 11. Additional nights lodging or guest lodging without the workshop are available upon request.

Both Workshops are limited to 12 students.
